Lothar Osterburg, Mein Traum vom HAUM, 2021, Photogravure with color aquatint on Hahnemuhle White, 15.5 x 21.5 inches

HUDSON, NEW YORK

Pamela Salisbury Gallery is proud to present Lothar Osterburg's Winterwunderkammer. The exhibition opens Saturday, December 18, 2021, and continues through early Spring 2022.

The Gallery's historic Carriage House is a seasonal space and is usually closed during the winter months. Osterburg will respond to lower temperatures, however, by creating work that speaks thematically and physically to cold weather. The multi-floor installation will be accompanied by snow and/or ice sculpture in the gallery's outdoor courtyard. Winterwunderkammer is a work in progress and is subject to change throughout its duration.

The Carriage House installation will include Osterburg's photographs of small-scale setups that reimagine memories and dreams using the 19th century photomechanical process of copperplate photogravure. The soft focus, scratches, and traces from the photogravure process, along with the use of roughly made models creates a world which hovers somewhere between the real and the imaginary.

The Hudson installation of Winterwunderkammer anticipates a planned but delayed museum show in Osterburg's hometown of Braunschweig, Germany.

*An artists' reception will take place Saturday, December 18, 2021 from 3:00 to 5:00 pm in the Sculpture Courtyard.**

*COVID-19 protocol will be followed. Visitors will be asked to wear a mask while inside the gallery.
